Shri B.L. Dembra, counsel for the petitioner.

State by Akhil Agrawal, , P.L. on advance copy.

Application for urgent hearing is allowed.

Heard.

Petitioner was working as Lecturer in Government School. He retired on 30.11.2000. The grievance of the petitioner is that he is not being paid all the retiral dues and other arrears and that the respondents are not granting the actual pension, to which he is entitled. He prays for a direction commanding the respondents to release/disburse all the retiral dues payable to him.

Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within 15 days, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within two months from the date of receipt of the representation. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy under the law.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.

C.C.as per rules.
